845 Avison Way
Vancouver, BC Canada

Maximum capacity: 24 attendees

Date: Friday, October 18

COST: $55 USD

Duration of tour:

1-hour Behind-the-Scenes tour and on your own to explore the aquarium

Pre-registration is required to attend. Sign-up in Conference registration

Description: Gain a glimpse of the behind-the-scenes workings of the Aquarium and see what it takes to care for 50,000 amazing animals. Learn about the Aquarium’s research and conservation efforts. Some other highlights may include our Tropic Zone Hallway, Treasures of the B.C. Coast Hallway & Jelly Hallway. After your one-hour tour, continue your exploration of the Vancouver Aquarium, and what will you see today? Stop by and say hi to the adorable sea otters or come see the mesmerizing jellyfish. Enjoy daily dolphin, sea lion, walrus and penguin experiences, as well as the free-roaming animals found in the popular Amazon gallery. And make sure to visit the Treasures of the BC Coast gallery to discover the unique and breath-taking animals that live in BC’s local waters, including ‘Ceph Rogen’, the Pacific Octopus. You can also immerse yourself in the 4D Experience Theatre, which combines the high-definition excitement of a 3D film with thrilling sensory effects! The Vancouver Aquarium is an Ocean Wise initiative, a non-profit society dedicated to the conservation of aquatic life.

Attire: Walking shoes and a light jacket for the walk to and from the aquarium
